Summary

I completed my B.Tech in Computer Science from Parul University in March 2025. As a passionate web developer, I enjoy crafting creative, performance-driven web solutions. I am skilled in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React.js, with foundational knowledge of MongoDB, Express.js, and Node.js. I have experience in building responsive user interfaces and data-driven applications, along with proficiency in Microsoft Office tools such as Excel, Word, and PowerPoint for data analysis and documentation. I am committed to continuous learning and applying modern web technologies in real-world projects.
